DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

2. Figures 1-4 & 6-7 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the examiner does not accept the changes, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

3. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: Label "3" in figure 3 is not disclosed in the specification. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the examiner does not accept the changes, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

4. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claims 1 & 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 5,981,941 to Takata et al in view of US 6,713,756 B2 to Yamamoto et al.

With respect to claims 1 and 3, Takata et al disclose an optical encoding device comprising a light source (201), movable plate (203) as a main scale plate with grating (204) as a substantially fan-shaped scale grating, plate (207) as an object grating plate with grating (208) as a substantially fan-shaped scale grating, and light receiving plate (210) with light receiving area (211) as a photodiode grating plate with a photodiode photosensitive surface grating (see Takata et al figure 40). However, the teachings of Takata et al do not explicitly disclose the light receiving area being arranged at constant angular intervals. Such is known and disclosed by Yamamoto et al with a plurality of substantially fan-shaped photodiodes (412) located at constant angular intervals in a circumferential direction (see Yamamoto et al figure 50A). To modify the teachings of Takata et al with those of Yamamoto et al would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art because the modifications would allow the device to have a greater sensitivity to light received by the detection device and also to ascertain a spatial intensity distribution of light received.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 2 & 4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

9. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

With respect to claims 2 & 4, the modified Takata et al does not disclose nor suggest the scale gratings, object gratings, and the photosensitive surface gratings to be disposed in such a way as claimed so that the external peripheral side of the object grating is moved outwardly along the radial line in parallel fashion by a distance twice the first distance.
